

THE LUXE MANOR
Established 2006

Love is filling far more than just the air at The Luxe Manor this Valentine's Day

(Hong Kong, 17 January 2012) - While busy entertaining guests at its various 5th Anniversary celebrations, The Luxe Manor, Asia's only surrealist-themed boutique hotel, hasn't forgotten lovers or Valentine's Day. Key highlight of this year's attractions is a HK$2,800* sweetheart of a deal on romantic overnight stay in one of the hotel's six stylishly surreal themed suites. There's still more head over heels in love enjoyment in store at Dada Bar + Lounge (Dada), g.e. and FINDS where the respective treats include a choice of two shooters and delectable homemade chocolates, plus special Valentine's Day menus.

If you love shooters, you're sure to love Dada

Eager to tell the world of your love for your other half this Valentine's Day? Rewarding couples with a choice of complimentary shooters and scrumptious homemade chocolates after 9pm from 12 to 14 February, Dada will be delighted to help you do just that! With delightful Rose shooters artfully whipped up by resident mixmeister, Sam Limbu, and to-die-for chocolate treats from Group Executive Chef Bonelli, no one makes it easier to shout your love out louder than Dada!

Tuck into a choice of quietly intimate dinners

If you want to spend the evening whispering sweet nothing into your partner's ear while you dine a deux, The Luxe Manor's g.e and FINDS restaurants have just the understated ambience you're looking for! Over at g.e, you and your special someone can take it in turns feeding each other tidbits from a superlative HK$1,999* nine-course tasting menu. With a free glass of champagne for both of you and a surprise for the lady on 14 February only, there's no finer Valentine's Day value anywhere.

From 10 to 14 February, FINDS is pulling out all the stops for those who love wining and dining almost as much as they love each other. The many culinary landmarks on the eaterie's attractively priced HK$688* Valentine's Day menu include smoked freshly shucked Irish oysters and roasted pigeon breast gratinated with almonds and gently poached silver cod fillet. For just HK$288* more, you can toast your love for each other with four glasses of vintage wine and a peach sake nightcap.

The sweetest Valentine's Day Suite deal

Get set to lock the door, take the phone off the hook and cocoon yourself away for an amazingly intimate night between 7 and 14 February! With a wealth of thoughtful little extras including a pair of complimentary The Luxe Manor Limited Edition iPhone Case, the hotel's HK$2,800* Suite Deal guarantees a Valentine's Day you'll never forget. In addition to a complimentary breakfast for two, standouts include a complimentary mini-bar for lovers who don't want to go out plus 50% savings downstairs at Dada for those who do. Offering you the chance to cuddle up in your choice of incredibly atmospheric Royale, Chic, Safari, Liaison, Nordic and Mirage Suites, it all adds up to an enchanting evening no incurable romantic will be able to resist. To make things even more extra special, book your stay on 14 February and enjoy a special Valentine's Day card and Group Executive Chef Bonelli's free homemade chocolates in your room.
